

Mrs. Kathleen Campbell

I've been working in the preschool office for the past few years and I love getting to spend time with the children everyday. There is always something going on at the preschool so it's a really fun environment.

My husband, Jason, and I have two children, Emme & Grady who are both current Holy Cross Academy students. I enjoy reading, sewing and camping.